

EMPLOYER

Simple. Better. Defined Benefit Solutions

FOR PLAN SPONSOR USE ONLY.

Careful management of your Defined Benefit plan can be financially rewarding for you and your employees. They understand just how important it is to their overall retirement well being. You understand just how important it is to help them get ready to retire. You've made them a promise to deliver a retirement paycheck. Now you face the complexity of managing a healthy Defined Benefit plan. Choosing the right Defined Benefit plan provider helps you keep your promise to them while easing financial stress and uncertainty on your organization.

PLAN HEALTH FOR A DEFINED BENEFIT PLAN MEANS

Strong funding levels

Predictable results

Employee appreciation

Helping organizations and their financial officers deliver on promises

No matter what your goals are for your Defined Benefit plan, optimizing your plan comes down to contribution and investment strategies that work in tandem. Strategies that create financial results that meet your organization's specific needs and constraints. You need a Defined Benefit provider who will help you:

- Align your funding strategy with your investment policy.
- Find the right balance between return-seeking and liability-matching investment instruments.
- Manage risk through plan design, asset strategies and liability divestment.

- Achieve predictable and stable financial results year over year.
- Maximize employee appreciation for the retirement promises you've made.

A provider who understands you

In addition, you want a provider who understands the challenges you face. Today's public sector financial officer not only oversees fiscal responsibilities, they are charged with ensuring that long-term financial solutions are factored into today's complex budgets. MassMutual® has been providing plans to government entities for more than 60 years. With a rare combination of strength and stability, you can stake your reputation on us.
